WRIPPING AN EDITOR.-Editors, like other shrewd men, must live with their eyes open. A good story is told of one who started a paper in a Western town. The town was infested by gamblers, whose presence was a source of annoyance to the citizens, who told the editor that unless he came out against them they would not patronize his paper. He replied that he would give them a good "smisher" next day. Sure enough his "sm isher" next day. Sure enoughert issue contained in full the ised "smasher," and on the following morning the redoubtable editor, with morning the redoubtable editor, with scissors in hand was seated in his sanctum, when in walked a large man with a club in his hand and demanded to know if the editor was in. "No, air was the reply; "he has just stepped out. Take a seat and read the papers; he will return in a minute." Down sat the indignant man of earths crossed his hearth and the statement man of earths crossed his hearth and the statement man of earths crossed his hearth. mot man of cards, crossed his legs, with his club between them, and commenced reading a paper. In the mean time the el tor very quietly vamosed down stairs, it at the landing he met another excited men, with a cadgel in his han, who asked if the editor was in. "Yes, sir," was the reply; " you will find hir a sted up stairs, reading a newspa er." The latter, on entering the room, with a fearful oath, commenced a violent as sult upon the former, which was resisted with equal ferocity. The fight was continued tol they had both rolled to the foot of the stairs, and had pounded each other to their hearts con ent.

RUSSIA AND URINA.—L'here seems to be a fair prospect of a war between Russia and China. It appears that, owing to and China. It appears that, owing to certain troubles between the two nations, one of the western provinces of China (Kouldscha) was a year ago seized and held by Russian troops. The inhabitants of the province are mostly Mahomedaus, and averse to Chinese rule, and prefer to remain under Russian protection, while the Chinese Government seems determined to repossess the usurped Terri-tory. The Government at Pekin is basitory. The Government at Pekin is busi-ly preparing for war. Fifteen hundred men are daily employed in the construc-tion of ironclads and the preparation of guas and ammunition. Agents have also been sent smong the Russian Kirghis, who are in effect Chinese, to induce them to renew their old allegiance, and take an active part on the rails in the iman active part on the r si le in the im-pending conflict.-[N. Y. Star.

A MODEL STATEMENT.—The law instistudent to furnish the august board with a written statement of the place of wor-ship and Bible class attended, boarding place, etc., affords unlimited opportunihis for the waggish student to display his peculiar ways. The following speci-men was recently received by the govern-ing element: "Attended Catholic church. Have conscientious scruples in regard to B ble classes. Refresh the inner man at Mrs. Jerusha Ann Tompkins', at a pecuniary expense of $5 per week—washing extra. Survive on faith, hash and napkins; hired girl's name, Nancy; good looking and robust, of Swedish extraction. We invariably rise at a. m. and tetira at a. m. retire at p. m.

A MAN IN LOVE. - Gail Hamilton is not always sensible, nor even as truthful as she should be, when she talks about men, matrimony and woman suffrage; but she did say this truthful and beautiful thing: "There is no slavery so abject as the slavery of a man to the woman he loves. Abject, because it goes behind his will and possesses the whole man. And the more he is, the more strong and bright and free, the more thorough his enthrallment. Woe to such an one if he falls into the hands of a weak, a frivolous, or an unworthy owner.
Joy to him if his proprietor be a largenatured woman; for then his completent thrall is most exalted and divine free-

A SELL.—An old gentleman with sev-ral suspicious red spots on his face, en-tered a railway car the other day, and quietly took the only seat that was va-cant. An inquisitive chap asked him if he had had the small-pox, and he said "yes." There was a general seramble among the passengers, all of whom de-sired to get out at ouce, and in about a minute the old gentleman had the car to himself. The conductor entitional himself. The conductor, cautionaly peering in, demanded to know how long it was since the afflicted individual had a scovered. "Well, sir," replied the victim of disease, "I can't exactly say; but as near as I can recollect, it was about 35 years are." 35 years ago."

Without a belief in personal immortal-ity, religion surely is like an arch rest-ing on a pillar, like a bridge ending in an abyse.
